

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

GENERAL INDEX TO SECOND SESSION 1880.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulae set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2^d;" Amendt. 'this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

• Notice of Motion, The Earl of Galloway June 22, 529

Moved to resolve, "That, in accordance with the Resolution agreed to by this House on the 14th June last 'That it is incumbent upon this House to rescind their Order of 26th February 1875, which ran as follows, viz.: 'That at the future meetings of the Peers of Scotland assembled under any Royal Proclamation for the election of a Peer or Peers to represent the Peerage of Scotland in Parliament, the Lord Clerk Register, or the Clerks of Session officiating thereat in his name, do call the title of Earl of Mar according to its place on the Roll of Peers of Scotland called at such election, and do receive and count the vote of the Earl of Mar claiming to vote in right of the said earldom, and do permit him to take part in the proceedings of such election,'" the said Order be rescinded, and that intimation to that effect be made to the Lord Clerk Register of Scotland" (The Earl of Galloway) July 1, 1215

Amendt. to leave out after "That," and insert "further consideration has led this House to consider that it would be inexpedient to rescind the Order of the 26th February 1875, which was made after the House had resolved and adjudged that Walter Henry Earl of Kellie Viscount Fenton Baron Erskine and Baron Dirlston in the Peerage of Scotland had made out his claim to the earldom of Mar in the Peerage of Scotland created in 1565, as consequential to such resolution and judgment, and that to rescind an Order so made in relation to a right to a Peerage adjudged after long investigation, and which Order has been acted upon at several elections of Scotch Peers, without any further inquiry and unsupported by any new evidence, would be contrary to the practice of this House and establish an objectionable and dangerous precedent" (The Earl of Redesdale); after debate, on Question, "That the words, &c.?" SPEAKER—ELECTION OF

Mr. Henry Brand unanimously called to the Chair, [252] 12

Mr. Speaker-Elect expresses his sense of the great honour which the House had been pleased to confer upon him. Is presented to the Royal Commissioners and approved, and reports the same to the House, and first takes the Oath, [252] 195

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS

A Motion not seconded cannot be put, [255] 1175

Moving the adjournment of the House—Mr. Speaker reminds the House that he has frequently—on almost every occasion—pointed out the great inconvenience that has arisen when hon. Members not being satisfied with the Answers which they have received to Questions addressed by them to Ministers of the Crown have moved the adjournment of the House, [252] 1917

Notice—Motion without Notice for the Adjournment of the House.—I apprehend that the proper course for the hon. Member to take upon a Question of so much gravity as this (M. Challemeil-Lacour, the French Ambassador) is to give Notice that on an early day he will move an Address to the Crown upon this appointment of a foreign Ambassador, [252] 1906, 1917, 1918, 1970

[See Questions, M. Challemeil-Lacour.]

Dropped Orders—Effect of "Count-out."—According to the Standing Orders all "Dropped Orders" are carried forward to the next day's Sitting, [254] 1955, 1959

Leave—Notice—Effect of Standing Order of the 18th February, 1879, on Motion for Leave to bring in a Bill (the Compensation for Disturbance (Ireland) Bill).—[See The half-past Twelve o'clock Rule]

Amendments—An Amendment which raises the same question as one that has already been decided upon by the House cannot be put, [255] 1177

Relevancy of Amendment—Mr. Speaker: It appears to me that the Amendment is not strictly relevant to the subject of the Bill, and cannot therefore be put, [252] 970

Relevancy of Amendment—The Appropriation Bill—A Resolution relative to abuses in the Belfast Workhouse cannot be moved as an Amendment on the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill, [256] 967

Relevancy of Amendment—The Appropriation Bill—A Resolution relating to the rejection of the Registration of Voters (Ireland) Bill by the Lords would not be in Order on the Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair."—Appropriation Bill, Committee, [256] 1232

Relevancy of Amendment, [256] 478

An Amendment before the House must be disposed of before another can be proposed, [255] 1433; [256] 1111

Amendment—Motion for Supply.—Moved, "That this House will, upon Monday next, resolve itself into the Committee of Supply." The only Amendment that can be moved is as to the day on which the House will do this, [254] 731

But an hon. Member moving the adjournment of the House would be in Order [254] 732

Withdrawal of Amendment—In Committee on Employers' Liability Bill, Mr. Macdonald moved an Amendment, which he afterwards asked leave to withdraw. But it being ten minutes to Seven of the clock, the debate was adjourned. Afterwards, on the resumption of the debate, Mr. Macdonald again asked for leave to withdraw his Amendment. Objected to, on ground of Order.

Mr. Speaker said, it was not a question of Order. On the previous occasion when leave to withdraw was asked that leave was not given, and the hon. Member now renewed his application.

In the result, leave was given, and the Amendment withdrawn, [253] 1775

Precedence—Business of the House.—Mr. Onslow asked whether the Question under discussion, being one of Privilege, would take precedence of the Motion for the adjournment of the House over the Derby Day? Mr. Speaker: The Question of the adjournment over the Derby Day having reference to the Business of the House will take precedence of this Question, which will follow, [252] 422

Same Question not to be twice offered.—The hon. and learned Member for Chatham has correctly stated the Rule of the House to be that the same Question may not be twice offered in a Session. But the point the House has to consider is this—whether the Resolution now proposed (in reference to the case of Mr. Bradlaugh—Parliamentary Affirmation) is substantially the same as that on which a Vote of the House was taken on the 22nd June. On comparing the two Resolutions I find essential differences between them—whom Mr. Speaker pointed out in detail, [253] 1266

Third Reading of Bills—No Amendment, other than verbal, can be moved on the Third Reading. The only way in which the hon. Member could bring forward his Amendment would be to move the re-committal of the Bill, [256] 20

The House of Lords—The hon. Member asks me whether an Amendment on a Motion involving the continued existence of the House of Lords can be brought forward on any stage of the Appropriation Bill. I can only answer that I have no hesitation in saying that it cannot, [256] 472

An Amendment to substitute £100 for £10 penalty is inadmissible, [254] 1607

Consideration on Report—On the consideration of a Bill on Report, the Rule is to take the new clauses first, [256] 765

The half-past Twelve Rule—Mr. W. E. Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, having moved that leave be given to introduce the Compensation for Disturbance (Ireland) Bill, Sir Walter Barttelot objected, that due and proper Notice had not been given of the Bill, for it had been placed on the Notice Paper only that evening; and under Standing Order 95a of the House it was competent to any hon. Member who was not satisfied with its object to oppose its introduction. Mr. W. E. Forster asked Mr. Speaker whether the hon. and gallant Baronet was justified in objecting to the introduction of the Bill, against which no Notice of Amendment had been put down, after half-past twelve?

Mr. Speaker having read the Standing Order of the 18th of February, 1870, said the hon. and gallant Baronet would perceive that it was now too late for him to object to the Bill being introduced and read a first time, [253] 393

The half-past Twelve Rule—The Notice which the hon. Member (Dr. Cameron) had given—namely, that the Bill should be referred to a Select Committee—was not a Notice of Opposition of such a character as would prevent a Bill being taken after half-past Twelve o'clock, [252] 883

The half-past Twelve Rule, [256] 352, 771

Sitting and Adjournment of the House—Morning Sittings—At a Morning Sitting it has usually been the practice to proceed with the Orders of the Day, the Sitting being suspended from 7 to 9, [253] 836

Sitting and Adjournment of the House—Morning Sittings—An Order of the Day read after 6.50, if opposed, cannot be proceeded with at that time, [255] 820

QUESTIONS

Practice of the House—Notice being taken of the inconvenience which arises from the practice of reading the terms of a Question at the time of giving Notice, and again on putting it—

Mr. Speaker said: I have already stated to the House—[253] 1920—that it was formerly the practice for Members to read their Questions, and that practice has generally prevailed down to the present day. But I am bound to say that latterly the practice has prevailed of putting Questions at such extraordinary length that I am inclined to think that the House will do well to depart from it, [255] 311

Questions to Ministers—One of the Rules of the House applying to all Questions put to Members of the Government is that there shall be no argument, or opinion, or any fact stated by the hon. Member putting a Question, except so far as is necessary to explain such Question, [255] 322

Questions addressed to Private Members—It is a Rule of the House that a Question addressed to a Private Member must refer to a Motion or Bill before the House, [252] 1194; [253] 76

Questions to Members not being Ministers of the Crown—Mr. O'Connor Power proposing to give Notice to ask Sir Stafford Northcote what course he intends to pursue in reference to a Motion of which Notice had just been given by the Prime Minister—

Mr. Speaker said: Such a Question as that indicated by the hon. Member for Mayo would not be in Order. It does not relate to any Bill or Motion before the House for which the right hon. Gentleman the Member for North Devon is himself responsible, [253] 974 [See 835, 1901]

Questions—Notice—An hon. Member intending to put a Question, should give Notice of it, [252] 1619

Questions—An hon. Member, in asking a Question, is not entitled to make a statement, [255] 876

Order—An hon. Member, having given Notice of a Question, read to the House at great length nine distinct Questions. Notice being taken, Mr. Speaker said the hon. Member, in reading the Question of which he had given Notice, was, strictly speaking, not out of Order. With respect to the propriety of his doing so, he (Mr. Speaker) would give no opinion, [255] 310

Alteration of Questions—Introduction of Names in Questions—Mr. Onslow complained of an alteration in a Question of which he had given Notice, by the omission of a Name (Mr. Gladstone's) which was included in it; and inquired whether the omission had been made by the authority of Mr. Speaker or by the Clerk at the Table?

Mr. Speaker: The alteration referred to in the Question has been made by the Clerk at the Table under my general authority, according to the uniform practice of the House when the names of individuals are introduced into Questions. Those names do not appear upon the Paper unless they are necessary to make the Questions plain, [253] 1632

Alteration of Questions—Mr. O'Donnell having placed on the Paper a Question in reference to M. Challemeil-Lacour, the French Ambassador, consisting of three parts, one of which was omitted from the Notice Paper—Mr. O'Donnell objecting—Mr. Speaker said: The Question the hon. Member proposed to put appeared to me to advert to a matter beyond the cognizance of the House or of Her Majesty's Government; and on that ground I did not allow it to be placed on the Paper; and called upon the hon. Member to confine himself to the two Questions on the Paper.

Mr. O'Donnell: Under these circumstances, I decline to put any Question at all, [253] 197, 198

Questions—Irrregularity in Questions, [253] 835, 1901

Questions—M. Challemeil-Lacour—The hon. Member for Dungarvan (Mr. O'Donnell) having given Notice of a Question relating to

M. Challemeil-Lacour, the French Ambassador, and to other diplomatic intercourse with France, Mr. Speaker said that, in his judgment, the hon. Member would have been better advised if, considering the gravity of the Question, he had consulted the Chair before he gave public Notice of it. But Mr. Speaker was not prepared to say that the Question was irregular, [252] 1903

The hon. Member for Dungarvan (Mr. O'Donnell) persisting — Mr. Speaker desired to point out the irregularity of the course the hon. Member was proposing to take. "He has put a Question on the Paper addressed to a Minister upon a matter of great importance, and he has to that Question received an Answer. He now rises in his place and declares that he intends to conclude with a Motion. I must put it to the House whether the question as to the appointment of a foreign Ambassador to this Court can properly be debated on a Motion without Notice for the adjournment of the House?" [252] 1903

Mr. O'Donnell persisting in disregarding the ruling of the Chair, Mr. Gladstone moved "That Mr. O'Donnell be not now heard." Debate arising; Mr. Speaker said: "I am bound to say that a Motion of this kind has not been made in this House for 200 years. At the same time, it is very doubtful whether such a proceeding as that which took place before the Motion was made to-night has occurred within that time," [252] 1917

RULES OF DEBATE

Un-Parliamentary Language — Mr. Callan, Member for Louth, having made use of some opprobrious language and disregarding the authority of the Chair, is "named" by the Chairman of Committees and—Mr. Speaker having resumed the Chair, and putting the Question to the House—is suspended from the service of the House during the remainder of the Sitting, [256] 1266

Mr. Thorold Rogers: Hon. Members did not seem inclined in the present instance to act as generously as they did in their sports, where they gave a little law even to vermin, and should still more to a Member of this honourable House, even though he were a reputed Atheist.

Mr. Speaker—The hon. Member, probably carried away by the heat of debate, has applied an expression to an hon. Member of this House which is not Parliamentary; and Mr. Speaker called upon Mr. Rogers to withdraw that expression, [252] 350

Mr. Speaker—I must point out to the hon. Member (Sir Henry Tyler) that it is not in accordance with Parliamentary usages to say that Members of this House are on the side of Atheism, irreligion, and immorality, [252] 369

Mr. Labouchere wished to ask whether the hon. Member (Mr. Callan) was in Order in referring to his Colleague as an Infidel blasphemer?

Mr. Speaker: I have already stated, in an early part of this debate, that expressions of that kind, if used towards a Member who is present, are entirely out of Order, [252] 411

It is certainly out of Order to impute unworthy motives to Members of the House or the Government collectively, [255] 791

Mr. Mitchell Henry: The hon. Member for Dungarvan will find that, although we shall be compelled to vote with the hon. Member for Cork in favour of an adjournment of the debate, he will, by persisting in his present course, have lost all claim to our respect as a guardian of the rights of minorities. Mr. O'Donnell rising to Order—

Mr. Speaker said, the expression was certainly un-Parliamentary, and ought to be withdrawn, [252] 1939

Un-Parliamentary Language, [253] 215, 1318

Language not un-Parliamentary—The Home Secretary having said "the sole object and intention of this sort of thing is to waste time." Objection taken.

Mr. Speaker—So far as I followed the right hon. and learned Gentleman no expression fell from him which was not of a Parliamentary character, [255] 829

Mr. Mitchell Henry Nothing could be more contemptible than a denial of this kind. Objected to.

Mr. Speaker: I did not observe anything in what the hon. Member for Galway said that was out of Order or of an un-Parliamentary character, [255] 1880

Right of Reply—An hon. Member (Mr. Chaplin), on putting a Question, moved "That this House do now adjourn."

Mr. Speaker said that the Question before the House being a substantive Motion, the hon. Gentleman had the right of reply, [255] 796

An hon. Member is not entitled to a reply on a Question, [255] 1374

The Mover of an Amendment has not a right of reply, [254] 1492, 1836

Relevancy of Observations—An hon. Member to confine his observations to the substantive Motion before the House, [252] 475, 476, 478

Relevancy of Observations. [252] 486, 487, 1441, 1927; [253] 78, 79, 560, 1355, 1364, 1365, 1373, 1885; [254] 142, 1148, 1208, 1495, 1506, 1518; [255] 786, 1437, 1438, 1439, 1442; [256] 609, 773, 993, 994, 1008, 1009, 1011, 1016, 1221, 1220

Premature discussion of a Question—On Motion that Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair in order that the House go into Committee of Supply, it is out of Order to discuss a Vote [which is included in the Estimates about to be proposed], [253] 924

Premature discussion of a Motion, [252] 1338

Premature discussion of Clauses—As a general rule, on the Second Reading of a Bill it is not regular to discuss clauses in detail; but if any clause in a Bill raises a vital principle it can be discussed on the Second Reading, [253] 213, 216

But a Member may refer to an Amendment of which he has given Notice, but may not discuss it on its merits, [253] 1921, 1943

It is not in Order, in discussing a clause, to discuss the general principle of a Bill, [254] 1138

Reference to previous debate—Any reference to what was said in a former debate in this Session would be irregular, [253] 1911, 1912; [256] 107, 108, 118, 124, 1062

But the Chief Secretary for Ireland having made a personal explanation as to one of his speeches, that speech is now before the House, [256] 118

Reference to a speech made in the House of Lords this Session would not be in Order [256] 1218

The Queen's Name—It is competent for a Member to introduce the name of the Sovereign in illustration of a point in his address, [252] 1984

Reference to a Member by Name—An hon. Member having referred to Members of the House by name

Mr. Speaker said he understood the hon. Member to be reciting some document in reference to the proceedings of the late Parliament—in which case he was quite in Order, [252] 1365

Speaking a second time—An hon. Member who has spoken upon the Motion for the adjournment of the debate is not at liberty to move the adjournment of the House, [256] 774

Latitude of Observations, on moving the adjournment of the Debate, [253] 211, 212

An hon. Member who has moved the adjournment of the debate cannot afterwards address the House, [256] 785

An hon. Member, who has a Notice on the Paper, and rises to suggest that he should postpone his Resolution on account of the absence of the Minister, is in possession of the House, and should he then sit down would have exhausted his right to speak, [255] 2000

Speaking the second time, [254] 142, 1793

Personal Explanation, [252] 226

Explanation—Time for making, [254] 1877

An hon. Member speaking is to address himself to the Chair, [253] 385; [255] 2044

Must not read his speech, [253] 1340

PRIVILEGE

Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh)—Proceedings in the Case of Mr. Bradlaugh, returned as one of the Members for the Borough of Northampton, [252] 187, 188, 209, 221

During the debate on Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh's Case) Notice taken that a gentleman is now, and has been for some time, within the limits of this House taking notes; and I (Mr. Macdonald) wish to know whether that is by your authority, or the authority of this House?

Mr. Speaker: The shorthand writer referred to by the hon. Member is present by the authority of this House; and he is taking down—not the debates of the House, for that would be clearly out of Order—but simply the proceedings in reference to this matter, which is a matter of Privilege, [253] 654

Imputations on a Member of this House—In some instances questions of this kind have been taken as questions of Privilege, and have had precedence; but more frequently such questions have been dealt with as ordinary Motions. But it will, on examination, be found that whenever such questions have been treated as Privilege, urgency has been of the essence of the Motion, [253] 433

Addition of Names to a List of Select Committee—Mr. Speaker: The Committee having been appointed, the question of adding new names to the list of that Committee would not take precedence of the other Business as a matter of Privilege, [252] 607, 788

PUBLIC BILLS

Bills affecting Religion—On Motion that the Parliamentary Disqualification Bill be read the second time, Mr. Labouchere objected that the Rules and Orders of the House had not been complied with. It was a Bill affecting Religion, and the condition of its being considered in Committee of the Whole House had not been complied with. Mr. Speaker ruled the objection to be fatal, [254] 468

Bills relating to Money—Money Clauses—An Amendment (Customs and Inland Revenue Bill) proposing that the managers and owners of all clubs selling spirits, &c. on the premises shall take out the licences specified in the clause can only be put to the vote in Committee of the Whole House, [254] 1614

Bills of Indemnity—Lord Byron's Indemnity Bill—In cases of urgency the House has frequently passed a Bill through all its stages at one Sitting. Bills of this character have always been looked upon as Bills of urgency; and, on previous occasions, similar measures have been passed by this House at one Sitting, [254] 609, 644

Instructions to Committees on Bills—Instructions intended to be moved upon going into Committee on a Bill ought to take precedence of any explanatory statement, [255] 798; [256] 1207

Parliament—"Tacking"—Mr. Parnell, proposing (Sept. 2) to add an Instruction to the Committee on the Motion for going into Committee on the Appropriation Bill, to the effect that the 8th Clause of the Registration of Voters (Ireland) Bill should be added to the Appropriation Bill, inquired of the Speaker whether he would be in Order in so doing?

Mr. Speaker said: If such an Instruction were moved I should not consider it my duty to decline to put it from the Chair; but I am bound to say that such a Motion would be in the nature of a tack upon a Money Bill. I can positively say that no such proceeding has taken place in this House for a period of 150 years. And Mr. Speaker offered some observations on the subject of "tacking" in past times, [256] 1059

And on Sept. 3 Mr. Parnell moving the said Instruction, Mr. Speaker put the Question from the Chair, again pointing out the unusual character of the proposition, [256] 1209

Committee and Third Reading—It is not necessary that a clear day should intervene between the Committee stage of a Bill and the Third Reading, [256] 1190

Bills from the Lords—According to the practice of this House, its business is never interrupted for the purpose of dealing with Bills sent down from the House of Lords. Such Bills are taken either before the Business in this House has commenced, or after the Orders of the Day and Notices on the Paper have been dealt with.—Lord Byron's Indemnity Bill, [254] 646

Stages of Bills—It is the practice of the House occasionally, particularly at the end of the Session, to take two stages of a Bill at one sitting, on the ground of urgency. The question of urgency is a matter for the judgment of the House, [256] 768

Bills not printed—Second Reading—Mr. Speaker—The course proposed to be taken is an unusual one; but I cannot say it is a breach of Order to read a Bill a second time without its being printed. It is not a Question that I can decline to put from the Chair, [256] 776

PRIVATE BILLS

Private Bills Committees—Personal Interest—No doubt a general principle exists that no Member having a direct pecuniary interest can serve on a Committee on a Private Bill, [252] 1180

Private Bills—Moved that Standing Orders 207 and 239 be suspended in respect of Metropolitan and Metropolitan District Railways. The House divided, Ayes 82, Noes 142, M. 60. The effect of this vote is that the House decides against the suspension of the Standing Orders. On another occasion the Bill might be brought forward, [254] 1080

Opposed Clauses—Order for the Third Reading of Williamson's Patent Bill read. Mr. Litton said he had to move the omission of the 22nd Clause. Mr. Speaker: If there is any opposition to the Bill the Motion for the Third Reading must stand over until tomorrow. Motion deferred accordingly, [254] 1465

PUBLIC PETITIONS

Public Petitions—The Corporation of London and the Corporation of Dublin have the privilege of presenting Petitions at the Bar of this House; but this privilege is limited to those two Corporations, [256] 825

DIVISIONS

The Rule of the House is very plain. It is that after a Question has been put a second time the Members present are bound to vote, [254] 735

Withdrawal of Members—Sir H. Drummond Wolff having drawn Mr. Speaker's attention to the fact that Members sitting on the Treasury Bench left the House and went into a room behind the Chair after the door in the Lobby had been closed by the Serjeant-at-Arms, Mr. Speaker said the hon. Gentlemen were entitled to withdraw. Mr. Speaker also explained that the room alluded to is not within the House for the purpose of a division, [254] 730

MISCELLANEOUS

Insufficiency of Accommodation in this House—Mr. Speaker has no authority, without orders or instructions from the House, to deal with the question of enabling a Member to secure his seat for the evening without sacrificing the whole day for the purpose [252] 331, 635, 1200

ERRATA.

In the Index to Vol. [251] the following subjects are erroneously attributed to Mr. A. PELL, instead of Mr. ARTHUR PELL:—Railways and Canals—Through Rates, 1185; Rivers Conservancy, 591. In the same way, General Sir GEORGE BALFOUR is wrongly credited with—Afghanistan—Expenses of Military Operations, 936, which should have been placed under Mr. A. J. BALFOUR.

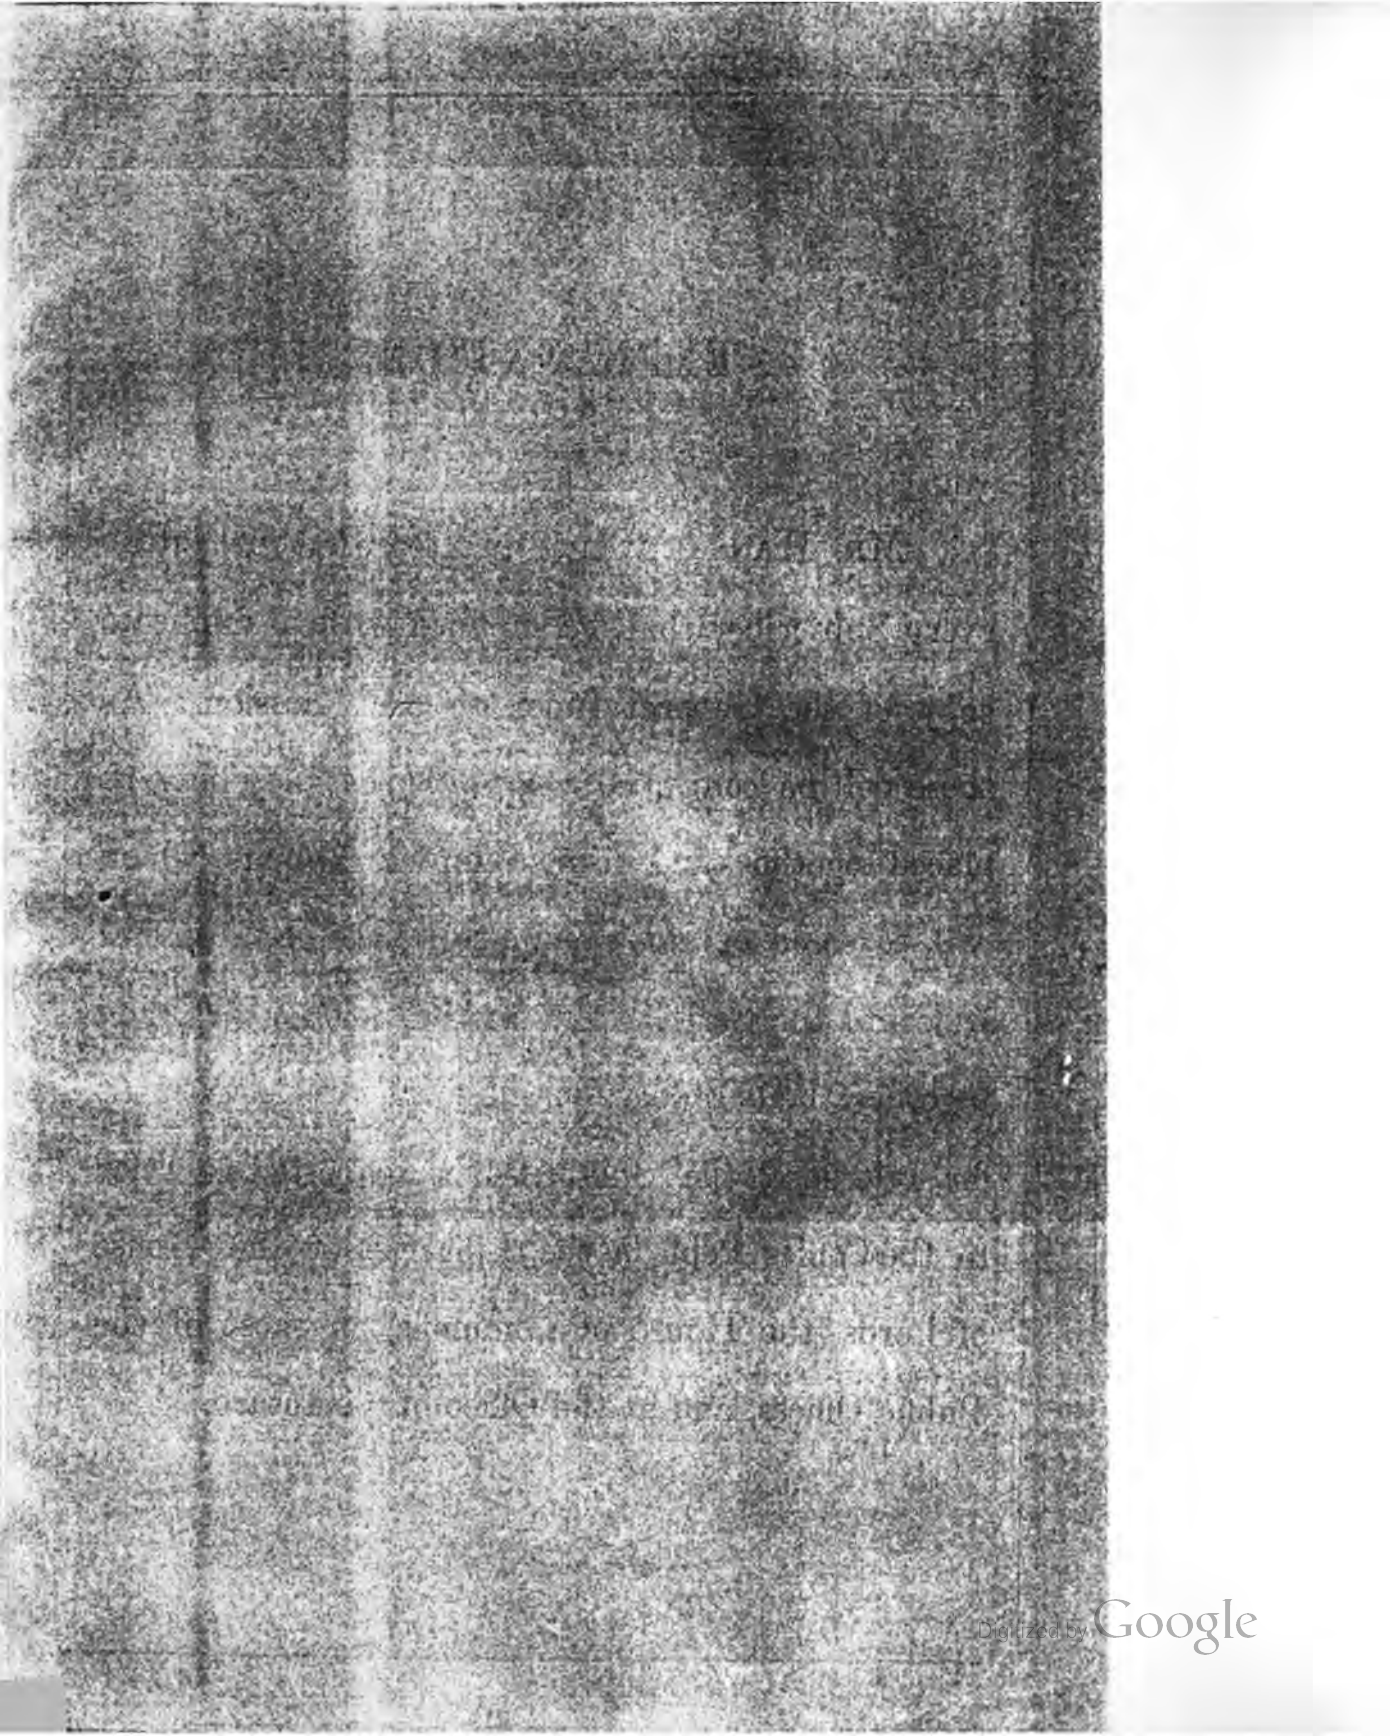

The sentence towards the bottom of Page 830, Vol. [253]—"Very probably words will be quoted from speeches of my right hon. Friend (Mr. Gladstone) separating the fact from the fiction," should read—"Very probably words will be quoted from speeches of my right hon. Friend (Mr. Gladstone) separating the past from the future."

In Vol. [254], pages 238 and 245, for Mr. W. E. PRICE read Captain G. E. PRICE.
" " page 1035, lines 25 and 26 from top, for "right hon. Gentleman the Member for Birmingham," read "hon. Gentleman the Member for Birmingham (Mr. Muntz)."

END OF VOLUME CCLVI., AND FIFTH AND LAST
VOLUME OF SECOND SESSION 1880.

EXPLANATION.

MR. HANSARD has directed that in future every Subscriber shall be supplied with a duplicate copy of the General Index to each Session. As these will be continued year by year, they may be placed together and formed into a Volume which will, to some extent, supply the place of a General Index to the Series. As to the mode of binding together these Indexes in the form most convenient for reference, the Subscriber is requested to refer to the Copies kept in the Libraries of the House of Lords, the House of Commons, in most of the Public Offices, and at the Office of "Hansard."

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1881.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulae set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2^d;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

Ecclesiastical Courts

Moved, That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying that Her Majesty will be pleased to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire into the constitution and working of the Ecclesiastical Courts, as created or modified under the Reformation Statutes of the 24th and 25th years of King Henry the Eighth and any subsequent Acts (The Lord Archbishop of Canterbury) Mar 7, [259] 378

Amendt. to leave out after ("That,") and add ("whereas a Royal Commission in the year 1831, consisting of the then Archbishop of Canterbury and four other Bishops, Chief Justice of the King's Bench, and Chief Justice of Common Pleas, besides several other learned judges, was appointed to inquire into the practice and jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Courts in England and Wales, which Commission, after mature deliberation, presented a report in 1832: And whereas in the late matter of the Rev. P. T. Dale and the Rev. R. W. Enraght before the High Court of Judicature, the judges, after giving careful consideration, unanimously declared that the 'Court under the Public Worship Act was the same which had existed from the time of Lord Coke downwards, and was neither a new court nor had any new jurisdiction,' it is the opinion of this House that it is not desirable that an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty as proposed" (The Lord Oranmore and Browne); after debate, Question, That the words, &c. put; resolved in the affirmative

Amendt. on Committee of Supply June 10, To leave out from "That," and add "in the opinion of this House, the Law permitting the creation and perpetuation of life estates in land has caused great injury to all classes of the people, and specially to owners and occupiers of land and the labourers employed in its cultivation, and that such a change in the law is imperatively required as shall prevent (with very slight exception) the creation of such estates, and shall secure a real and competent ownership, and a complete freedom in the buying and selling of land throughout the Country" (Mr. William Fowler) v., [262] 286; Question proposed,

—Inadequate Sentences

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Aug 5, To leave out from "That," and add "the administration of the Law in cases of outrage upon the person has long been a reproach to our Criminal Courts; that outrages and assaults of the most brutal character, especially upon married women, even when they cause a cruel death, are commonly punished less severely than small offences against property; that the admission of the crime of drunkenness as an extenuation of other crimes is immoral, and acts as an incentive to persons about to commit outrages to wilfully deprive themselves of the guidance of reason" (Mr. Macfarlane) v., [264] 1000; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Question put, and agreed to

Sunday Opening of National Museums and Galleries

Moved to resolve, "That inasmuch as all opposition to the action of Her Majesty's Government in opening on Sundays the National Museums and Galleries in the suburban districts of London and in Dublin has entirely ceased owing to the good results which have followed such opening, this House is of opinion that the time has now arrived for extending this action to all institutions of a like character, it having been most conclusively shown that large numbers of the people rejoice at every opportunity that is afforded them of spending Sunday intelligently, and with due regard for its preservation as a day of rest and recreation

EXPLANATION.

M^R. HANSAARD has directed that in future every Subscriber shall be supplied with a duplicate copy of the General Index to each Session. As these will be continued year by year, they may be placed together and bound into a Volume which will to some extent supply the place of a General Index to the Series. As to the mode of binding together these indexes in the form most convenient for reference, the Subscriber is requested to refer to the Copies kept in the Libraries of the House of Lords, the House of Commons, in most of the Public Offices, and at the Office of Hansard.

GENERAL INDEX TO
SESSION 1882.

PUBLISHED BY CORNELIUS BUCK,

AT THE

OFFICE FOR HANSARD'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES,

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1882.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulae set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2^d;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."
